Register NOW for this 5/27 FREE adult literacy workshop

Need help working with adults with literacy challenges? This five-hour workshop will help library staff understand adult learning styles, learn how libraries can maximize adult literacy resources and services through community collaboration, identify potential literacy partners, and create an adult learning environment within the library.

Registration for LIFT-Missouri's workshop session "Improving Adult Literacy through Community Collaboration," which will be held in Columbia on May 27, will remain open until Tues., May 25. To read a full workshop description and sign up for this first workshop session or select one of the four other regionally-offered sessions, visit <http://www.lift-missouri.org/workshops/2009-2010/community.html>.
